About the project

The main topic of the project „Culture variations” is culture diversity in many aspects of our life. Technology, economy and geopolitical situation in Europe change very fast and huge differences can be noticed between us and the generations of our parents or grandparents. We would like to use these differences to be more open to each other and the diversity will become our national wealth. Our main work method will be making flipbooks – a book with a series of pictures; when the pages are turned rapidly, the animated pictures appear. This is actually the first form of animation. This method stimulates creativity, reflexion, cooperation and organization of work.

Apart from that, the participants will take part in many activities, both theoretical and practical.

- presentations,
- orienteering game in Zakopane,
- language animation, ice breaking games,
- workshops and discussions,
- trip to the mountains,
- brainstorming,
- national evenings and group presentations as a support international education of the participants
