

SUFISM IN ACTION

23 August – 1 September 2016, Konya, Turkey

Erasmus+

OVERALL AIM

- The aim of our project is increasing awareness of youngsters on diversity, tolerance and empathy notions by instrumentalizing the teachings of Sufism in order to abolish prejudices and stereotypes about different religions and cultures, improving the awareness of European citizenship.
- We will carry out our project based on Sufism philosophy through self-awareness, values and culture, prejudices and stereotypes, tolerance and empathy concepts. Participants will cover Sufi music from their perspective and express Sufism on their point of view in video works. There will be a concert and video show as the outcomes of our project.

GOALS OF THE PROJECT

- To break the prejudices through using the notions as tolerance, empathy and humanity to fight with discrimination, racism, islamophobia and xenophobia
- To rise the respect for the diversity and personal cultures and values
- To increase awareness about European Values as our common values
- To contribute to increasing self awareness and self esteem of young people
- To provide a working environment for the people from different cultures in international teams
- To contribute the improvement of digital competences and competences about using foreign language
